The Arts Leadership Alliance is a community-based nonprofit organization founded for the purpose of developing the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts and its associated programming. It serves as the community's on-going voice in maintaining the responsiveness and excellence of the Center's programs. ALA's activities include developing and implementing programs that foster the broadest possible public use of the Center for the Arts and cooperating with the City of Tracy in promoting the public's use of all of the City's programs at the Center for the Arts.

Funds are raised and managed by the City's non-profit partner, the Arts Leadership Alliance. As the exclusive fundraising organization of the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts, ALA helps support special programs and the educational outreach of the Center through the Clyde Bland Education Fund.
